

The Campaign for Homosexual Equality

Membership application form

CHE is in a process of transition. In accordance with two resolutions at Annual Conferences, we are planning to close CHE in its present form, and transfer its funds and income to a new registered charity, provisionally called CHE Research Trust, whose aims will include researching and documenting the history of CHE and of the wider struggle for LGBT+ rights. This process has taken longer than intended, partly for Covid-related reasons, but our Transition Team, comprising our seven Executive Committee members and our three Trustees, is now taking it forward. One aspect of the change is that we are no longer processing membership renewals. All existing CHE members are having their memberships carried forward, to be transformed in due course to an "associate member" role with the new charity. We are aware that some people might still wish to join as members of CHE, but this will now be on the basis of a single one-off payment, currently set at £20.
